We are a warm, diverse, and active Jewish community offering a wide variety of cultural, educational, and holiday programs. You are warmly invited to join us at our weekly Shabbat evening and morning services. We hope you will visit our synagogue, tour the facilities, and meet our members and staff. You can get information about what programs and events we offer on our website www.cbsmoesto.org; following is a list of some of the activities our congregation offers:

In addition, we offer festival and holiday celebrations throughout the year.

CBS encourages all Jewish individuals and families to become members; this includes blended, interfaith and traditional families.

Associate memberships are available for up to 6 months for interested Jewish members and those who are in a conversion class recognized by the Rabbi of CBS. Associate membership allows one to “sample” membership in the congregation with full privileges with the exception of voting at membership meetings. Individual associate membership is $25 per month and family associate membership is $50 per month.

An important note on Jewish identity:

Historically, since the Rabbinic period (about 2,000 years ago), Jewish status was passed down by the mother. This is known as matrilineal descent. This means that a son or daughter of a Jewish mother, or someone who had a traditional conversion, is Jewish, even if their father is not Jewish. Prior to this period, the Bible recognized patrilineal descent, whereby one’s Jewish status was determined by one’s father.

In 1983, the Reform Jewish Movement adopted the principal of patrilineal descent. This is a bit of a misnomer: Reform Judaism considers a child of an interfaith couple to be Jewish as long as one parent is Jewish and the child is raised as a Jew and receives a Jewish education and celebrates appropriate life cycle events, such as receiving a Hebrew name and becoming bar or bat mitzvah. This also assumes that the child is being raised exclusively as a Jew and not practicing another religion. It’s important to understand that this definition of Jewish identity was not accepted by traditional (Conservative and Orthodox) congregations in the United States or by the vast majority of Jewish communities in other parts of the world including Israel.

CBS functions as a pluralistic and welcoming independent congregation and we also maintain affiliation with USCJ (United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism). As stated above, everyone who identifies as Jewish is encouraged to apply for membership. Our Rabbi is eager to meet with you to privately discuss your Jewish identity and find ways to welcome you into our diverse congregation.

Congregation Beth Shalom is a member organization. We rely on dues and donations to maintain our facility and staff and provide a wide diversity of cultural, educational and holiday programs that are open to the entire community. Without financial support from our members and donors we are not able to sustain our congregation and our programs. No one will be turned away due to lack of funds – we will work with you to find a meaningful level of support.
